DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to preliminary amendment filed 17 November 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Birns ET Al. (EP 1087298).

As per claims 1 and 4, Birns teaches a message memory (1) equipped with: a logical, virtual memory representation (2) for a configurable number of message-object memories and their data capacity for the storage of message contents (Paragraph 0008), a physical memory (3) divided into a specific number of segments, characterized in that the data capacity of the individual message-object memories and their association with the segments of the physical memory (3) are configurable(Paragraph 0040).

As per claim 2, Brins teaches characterized in that a message object takes the form of a cluster of multiple memory segments (Paragraph 0040).

As per claim 3, Brins teaches characterized in that predetermined configurations are defined in the application software (Paragraph 0082).

As per claim 5, Brins teaches use of a message memory in applications in the automotive sector or in data processing (Page 13, col. 23, lines 46-55).
